

CONFIDENTIAL DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

THIS CONFIDENTIAL DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made as of _____, 20__ (the "Effective Date"), by and between Vision & Virtue Partnership, with its principal place of business at _____ ("Vision", "Discloser" or the "Company"), and _____, with a principal address at _____ ("Recipient"). Each of Vision and Recipient shall be referred to as a "Party" and collectively, the "Parties".

1. Background and Purpose. Vision provides strategic, financial, business planning, capital raising and transaction support services to companies and other clients (each, a "Client"). In connection with discussions with Recipient regarding a potential financing, investment, acquisition, secondary transaction, strategic transaction, commercial engagement or other transaction involving one or more Clients and/or Vision (the "Transaction"), Vision may disclose or make available Confidential Information to Recipient. Recipient may be a venture capital fund, private equity fund, investment fund, investor, financial sponsor, family office, corporate investor, lender, strategic investor or other financing source. Recipient may use the Confidential Information solely for evaluating, negotiating and, if applicable, consummating the Transaction (the "Purpose"). This Agreement governs all such disclosures and access.

2. No Obligation; No Investment Commitment. Nothing in this Agreement, the disclosure of Confidential Information, the granting of access to a data room, or any discussions between the Parties shall obligate Vision, any Client, Recipient or any other person to proceed with any Transaction, investment, financing, due diligence process, engagement, negotiation, exclusivity arrangement or business relationship. Any Transaction shall be subject only to definitive written agreements, if any, executed by the relevant parties.

3. Definition of Confidential Information. "Confidential Information" means any and all non-public, confidential or proprietary information, data, documents, materials and communications disclosed, made available or otherwise provided by Vision, any Client, or any of their respective representatives to Recipient or its Representatives, whether before, on or after the Effective Date, whether orally, visually, electronically, in writing, by access to a data room, or by any other means, and whether or not marked or identified as confidential. Confidential Information includes, without limitation: (a) information concerning any Client, including business plans, financial models, budgets, forecasts, historical financial information, cap tables, KPI data, commercial pipeline, customer or supplier information, contracts, pricing, strategy, technology, product, intellectual property, operations, employees, management presentations, board materials, investor materials, valuation information, transaction structure, legal, tax, accounting or commercial information; (b) any information concerning Vision, its methodologies, templates, analyses, work product, client relationships, business model, pricing, strategy, know-how and processes; (c) the existence, status, terms and content of discussions between the Parties or with any Client, and the fact that a Transaction or potential Transaction is being considered; and (d) all notes, analyses, compilations, models, extracts, summaries, reports, copies, translations or other materials prepared by Recipient or its Representatives that contain, reflect or are derived from Confidential Information.

4. Client Information; Client Rights; Client Consent. Recipient acknowledges that certain Confidential Information may belong to, relate to, or be provided on behalf of Clients or other third parties. Vision may disclose such information only to the extent it is authorized to do so by the relevant Client and/or in connection with the Purpose, and Recipient understands that such information remains subject to the Client's ownership rights, confidentiality rights and other applicable restrictions. Recipient shall treat Client-related Confidential Information with the same level of protection as Confidential Information of Vision. Any Client whose information is disclosed may be an intended third-party beneficiary of Recipient's confidentiality, non-use, non-circumvention, non-contact, data protection and return/destruction obligations under this Agreement, and Vision may enforce such obligations on behalf of itself and/or the relevant Client.

5. Client Relationship and Opportunity Ownership. Recipient acknowledges that any Client introduced, identified, described or made available by Vision, and any investment, financing, acquisition, commercial or strategic opportunity relating to such Client that becomes known to Recipient through Vision or the Confidential Information, is a relationship and opportunity originated, managed or facilitated by Vision. Recipient receives no ownership, agency, mandate, advisory, sourcing, brokerage, finder, investment banking or other right in any Client relationship or opportunity by virtue of this Agreement or access to Confidential Information.

6. Obligations of Recipient. Recipient shall: (a) hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence; (b) use the Confidential Information solely for the Purpose and for no other purpose; (c) not disclose, distribute, publish, upload, copy, reproduce, transfer, transmit or otherwise make available any Confidential Information except as expressly permitted under this Agreement; (d) protect the Confidential Information using at least the same degree of care it uses to protect its own confidential information of a similar nature, and in no event less than a reasonable degree of care; (e) not reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble or otherwise attempt to derive any underlying technology, software, model, template, methodology, process or know-how from the Confidential Information; (f) not remove, alter or obscure any confidentiality, copyright, trademark, proprietary, ownership or similar notice; and (g) promptly notify Vision of any unauthorized access, use or disclosure of Confidential Information of which Recipient becomes aware.

7. Permitted Disclosures to Representatives. Recipient may disclose Confidential Information only to its directors, officers, employees, partners, members, investment committee members, affiliates, fund managers, financing sources, legal advisers, accountants, tax advisers, technical advisers and other professional advisers (collectively, "Representatives") who have a bona fide need to know the Confidential Information for the Purpose. Recipient shall ensure that each Representative is informed of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information and is bound by confidentiality and non-use obligations at least as restrictive as those contained herein, whether by written agreement, professional duty or applicable law. Recipient shall be responsible for any breach of this Agreement by its Representatives. Upon Vision's reasonable request, Recipient shall provide a list of Representatives to whom material Confidential Information was disclosed, subject to customary legal privilege and regulatory limitations.

8. Non-Contact; Expanded Non-Circumvention. Without Vision's prior written consent, Recipient shall not, directly or indirectly, contact, solicit, approach, communicate with, transact with, bypass or circumvent Vision in relation to any Client introduced or disclosed by Vision, or any shareholder, founder, officer, director, employee, customer, supplier, lender, adviser, banker, accountant, consultant, existing investor, potential investor, financing source or other counterparty of such Client, in each case in connection with the Purpose, the Transaction or any substantially similar transaction. All communications with a Client or its representatives shall be coordinated through Vision or made only with Vision's prior written approval, unless the relevant Client expressly instructs otherwise in writing. This Section shall not restrict Recipient from ordinary-course dealings with persons or entities with whom Recipient can demonstrate it had a pre-existing relationship independent of Vision and the disclosed Confidential Information, provided that Recipient does not use or rely on Confidential Information in connection with such dealings.

9. Non-Solicitation. For a period of twenty-four (24) months from the Effective Date, Recipient shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit for employment or engagement, hire, retain or induce to leave Vision or any Client any employee, officer, consultant, adviser or key service provider of Vision or such Client who was identified to Recipient or became known to Recipient through the Confidential Information or the Purpose, without Vision's prior written consent. This restriction shall not apply to general solicitations not targeted at such persons or to persons who approach Recipient independently without solicitation and without use of Confidential Information.

10. Restrictions on Use for Competing or Improper Purposes. Recipient shall not use Confidential Information to compete with Vision or any Client, to develop or improve competing services, products, models or strategies, to solicit employees, customers, suppliers, investors or financing sources of any Client, to make any investment or trading decision unrelated to the Purpose, or to obtain any commercial, strategic or competitive advantage other than evaluating the Transaction in good faith. Recipient shall not use Confidential Information for benchmarking, database enrichment, marketing, reverse engineering or any purpose unrelated to the Purpose without Vision's prior written consent.

11. Artificial Intelligence; Automated Processing. Recipient shall not upload, input, transmit, process, analyze, summarize, train on, fine-tune, embed or otherwise use Confidential Information in or through any external artificial intelligence system, large language model, generative AI tool, automated analytics platform, data extraction tool or similar third-party system, unless Vision has provided prior written consent. Any approved use of internal automated tools shall be limited to the Purpose, shall not permit model training or retention beyond the Purpose, and shall be subject to appropriate security, confidentiality, access control and deletion safeguards.

12. Data Room Access and Security. If Confidential Information is provided through a virtual data room, secure portal, file sharing service or similar platform, Recipient shall comply with all access restrictions, download limitations, watermarking, audit trail, screenshot restrictions, printing restrictions, security and other instructions provided by Vision or the relevant Client. Recipient shall not attempt to disable, bypass or interfere with any access controls, digital rights management, watermarking, logging or security features. Recipient shall ensure that each user accessing the data room is individually identified and authorized. Vision may revoke, suspend or limit access at any time. Recipient acknowledges that access logs, watermarking and usage records may be used to evidence access, use, download or disclosure of Confidential Information. Recipient shall maintain appropriate technical, administrative and organizational safeguards to protect Confidential Information against unauthorized access, loss, misuse or disclosure.

13. Clean Team; Portfolio Companies; Internal Information Barriers. If Recipient or any of its affiliates, portfolio companies, funds, investment vehicles or related parties has an investment, ownership interest, commercial relationship or strategic relationship with any company that competes with Vision or any Client, or operates in a market relevant to the Confidential Information, Recipient shall restrict access to Confidential Information to a limited clean team with a bona fide need to know for the Purpose. Recipient shall not disclose Confidential Information to any portfolio company, operating partner, commercial team, business development team or other person who could use the information competitively, unless Vision has provided prior written consent. Recipient shall maintain reasonable internal information barriers designed to prevent unauthorized access or misuse.

14. Personal Data and Privacy. To the extent Confidential Information includes personal data or information relating to identifiable individuals, Recipient shall process such information solely for the Purpose, in accordance with applicable privacy and data protection laws, and shall not sell, share, profile, transfer or otherwise process such information except as necessary for the Purpose and in compliance with this Agreement. Recipient shall implement appropriate technical and organizational safeguards, limit access to persons with a need to know, and promptly notify Vision of any actual or suspected data breach involving such information.

15. Legal or Regulatory Disclosure. If Recipient or any Representative is required by applicable law, regulation, court order, governmental authority, stock exchange, regulatory or self-regulatory body, or legal process to disclose any Confidential Information, Recipient shall, to the extent legally permitted, provide Vision with prompt written notice before disclosure so that Vision and/or the relevant Client may seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy. Recipient shall disclose only the portion of Confidential Information legally required to be disclosed and shall use reasonable efforts to obtain confidential treatment for any disclosed Confidential Information. Any such disclosure shall not relieve Recipient of its other obligations under this Agreement.

16. Exceptions. Recipient shall have no confidentiality or non-use obligation with respect to information that Recipient can prove by contemporaneous written records: (a) is or becomes publicly available through no breach of this Agreement by Recipient or its Representatives; (b) was lawfully known to Recipient before disclosure by Vision or a Client, without any duty of confidentiality; (c) is lawfully received from a third party who had the legal right to disclose it without restriction; or (d) is independently developed by Recipient without use of or reference to Confidential Information. Information shall not be deemed public or within an exception merely because portions of it are embraced by general public disclosures or because individual components are publicly known. Recipient bears the burden of proving any claimed exception.

17. Return or Destruction of Materials. Upon the earlier of termination or expiration of this Agreement, conclusion of discussions, rejection of the Transaction, or within seven (7) days following Vision's written request, Recipient shall promptly return or destroy all Confidential Information and all copies, extracts, summaries, analyses and materials containing or reflecting Confidential Information, and shall certify such return or destruction in writing upon request. Recipient may retain one archival copy solely for legal, compliance or regulatory recordkeeping purposes, and Confidential Information retained in automatic computer backups that are not readily accessible in the ordinary course of business, provided that any retained information remains subject to this Agreement for so long as retained.

18. Term; Survival. This Agreement shall remain in effect for three (3) years from the Effective Date, unless terminated earlier by either Party upon fifteen (15) days' prior written notice. Recipient's obligations with respect to each item of Confidential Information shall survive for so long as such information remains non-public, and trade secrets shall remain protected for so long as they qualify as trade secrets under applicable law. The obligations relating to non-use, non-disclosure, non-circumvention, non-contact, non-solicitation, return/destruction, remedies, governing law and miscellaneous provisions shall survive termination or expiration to the extent necessary to give effect to their purpose.

19. No Reliance; Independent Due Diligence. Recipient acknowledges that Confidential Information is provided for preliminary evaluation purposes only and that neither Vision nor any Client makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy, completeness, timeliness, reasonableness, achievability or sufficiency of any Confidential Information, including projections, forecasts, budgets, valuation materials, financial models, market data, KPIs, pipeline information or other forward-looking information. Recipient shall conduct its own independent investigation, analysis and due diligence and shall not rely on Vision or any Client as the sole basis for any investment, financing, acquisition, commercial or other decision. Any representations or warranties, if any, shall be made only in a definitive written agreement executed by the relevant parties.

20. Information Provided by Clients. Recipient acknowledges that certain Confidential Information may be prepared, supplied or approved by Clients or other third parties and may not have been independently verified by Vision. Vision shall not be responsible for verifying, auditing or updating Client-provided information unless expressly agreed in writing. Recipient shall not assert any claim against Vision based on the content, accuracy, completeness or omissions of Client-provided information, except in the case of Vision's fraud, willful misconduct or other liability that cannot be excluded under applicable law.

21. No License; Ownership. All Confidential Information shall remain the property of Vision, the relevant Client and/or their respective owners. No license, assignment or other right under any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret, database right, model, template, methodology, client relationship or other intellectual property or proprietary right is granted or implied by this Agreement. Recipient shall not acquire any rights in Confidential Information by virtue of access, review or use for the Purpose.

22. Material Non-Public Information; Securities Laws. Recipient acknowledges that Confidential Information may include material non-public information or price-sensitive information concerning a Client, Vision, an issuer, securities, assets or a potential transaction. Recipient shall comply with all applicable securities, market abuse, insider trading and similar laws and regulations. Recipient shall not trade, recommend, tip, cause or assist any other person to trade in any securities or financial instruments while in possession of material non-public information, except as may be expressly permitted by applicable law and a definitive transaction agreement.

23. Public Announcements. Except as required by applicable law or regulation, neither Recipient nor its Representatives shall make any public announcement, press release, marketing statement, social media post, tombstone, investor update or other public reference concerning Vision, any Client, the existence or status of discussions, the Purpose, the Transaction or this Agreement, without Vision's prior written consent. If disclosure is legally required, Recipient shall coordinate with Vision in advance to the extent legally permitted.

24. Remedies; Indemnity. Recipient acknowledges that any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement may cause irreparable harm to Vision and/or the relevant Client for which monetary damages may be inadequate. Vision shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief, specific performance and other equitable relief, without the need to prove actual damages or post bond to the extent permitted by law, in addition to any other rights and remedies available at law or in equity. Recipient shall be liable for damages caused by its breach, including, to the extent permitted by law, disgorgement of profits or benefits obtained through improper use or disclosure of Confidential Information, reasonable enforcement costs and legal expenses, and losses, claims or liabilities asserted by Clients or third parties against Vision arising from Recipient's breach or the breach of its Representatives.

25. Miscellaneous. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous communications and understandings relating to such subject matter. Any amendment or waiver must be in writing and signed by both Parties. No failure or delay in exercising any right shall constitute a waiver. If any provision is held invalid or unenforceable, it shall be limited or modified to the minimum extent necessary, and the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Recipient may not assign or transfer this Agreement or any rights or obligations hereunder without Vision's prior written consent, except to a successor by merger or sale of substantially all assets that is not a competitor of Vision or the relevant Client and that assumes this Agreement in writing. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and by electronic signature, each of which shall be deemed an original.

26. Electronic Signature; Clickwrap Acceptance; Audit Trail. Recipient agrees that this Agreement may be accepted, executed and delivered electronically, including through Vision's website, secure portal, data room, e-signature platform or other electronic acceptance flow. Electronic acceptance may include, without limitation, typing the Recipient's full name, inserting company and title details, checking an acceptance box confirming that Recipient has read and agrees to be legally bound by this Agreement, drawing or applying an electronic signature, clicking a button clearly indicating acceptance of this Agreement, or any combination of the foregoing. Any such electronic acceptance or signature shall be deemed binding and equivalent to a handwritten signature, and Recipient waives any objection to the validity, admissibility or enforceability of this Agreement solely on the basis that it was executed or accepted electronically. Vision may maintain an electronic audit trail evidencing acceptance of this Agreement, including the version of the Agreement presented, date and time of acceptance, name, email address, company, title, IP address, device or browser information, confirmation checkbox status, signature record and/or a PDF or other copy of the executed Agreement. Such records may be used as evidence of Recipient's review, acceptance and execution of this Agreement.

27. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Israel, without regard to conflict of law principles. The competent courts located in the Tel

Aviv-Jaffa district, Israel, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement, unless Vision elects to seek urgent injunctive or equitable relief in any court of competent jurisdiction.
